"Our Future"

This is our future.
Young, we hold all.
We stand among trying hours.
Ours is a world of happiness
of sorrow, too.
But we are young,
And all is ours,
To do with as we must.

And this is our future
our hope—
That we do right by
What is given—
What is ours
That we stand up to the happinesses,
the sorrows.

And when our future is no more,
And is gone,
We can say with pride
Our best is given unto the next.

Proudly Presents

The Eagle

Dedication

Dr. Byron Benton Burnes, known better to his many friends as B.B.B., is a native of Iowa, although as he says, his parents moved to Alabama when he was three, "so I feel more like a native of Alabama." Dr. Burnes' southern accent attests to this feeling. B.B.B. received his early education in the public schools of Alabama, and after losing his hearing as a teenager, he attended and graduated from the Alabama School for the Deaf. He then went to Gallaudet College and received his A.B. degree in 1926. Later he received another A.B. degree from Augustana College in South Dakota, and in 1939 he received a Masters degree from the University of Chicago. In 1955 Dr. Burnes received an Honorary Litt.D. degree from Gallaudet, an honor that is bestowed on only those educators of the deaf who have made outstanding contributions to the profession. Our B.B.B. has made so many outstanding contributions that this writer of so brief a biography cannot but commit several sins of omission in the attempt to enumerate them.

Among his contributions were his long term editorship of the CALIFORNIA NEWS; his many years as President of the National Associaton of the Deaf; his participation in professional summer sessions at the University of California, San Francisco State College, Gallaudet College, and Ball State College; his many literary contributions on professional subjects, particularly in the field of mathematics; and perhaps greatest of all, his instructional contribution to the multitude of students, who by his genius, qualified for higher education, and in many cases, gained fame in men, his job, and his students.

Dr. Burnes taught in Colorado, South Dakota, Minnesota, and finally in California, Berkeley, where he has served devotedly for twenty-eight years. His total service record adds to forty-three years. We asked B.B.B. what highlights he may have experienced during his years of service. His answer was: "Every day has been a highlight." That expresses best his dedication to his profession, his students.

Now that Dr. Burnes will turn his energies in other directions, your reporter learned that he will travel; will see more of his grandchildren; and will indulge in oil paintings a la Churchill, Eisenhower, and Norman Rockwell.

We wish him joy and pleasure in his retirement, and know certainly it is guaranteed with the program he plans.

Mrs. Caroline Burnes will have completed nineteen years service as Librarian at this school when she retires this year. Mrs. Burnes is a native of Chicago, Illinois, where she received all of her pre-college education. She received her B.A. degree from Gallaudet College, where she majored in Library Science. For several years after graduation from college she held the very important position of mother to two pretty daughters who have since repaid her maternal care with lovely grandchildren.

In 1950 Mrs. Burnes became the first fulltime librarian of this school when we moved into our present secondary school building. Hers has been the responsibility and the satisfaction of seeing the library grow, develop and become organized into its present proud status. It has earned not only the admiration of the many visitors; but particularly the accolades of our students, teachers, and teachers-in-training who make much good use of the comprehensive professional library. Incidental to her occupation with this large and important position, Mrs. Burnes pursued studies at San Francisco State College which culminated in a Masters of Arts degree in 1957. For her Masters thesis, Mrs. Burnes collaborated with Mrs. Catherine Ramger in writing the centennial history of this school, a real masterpiece.

Mrs. Burnes joins her husband, B.B.B., in a much deserved program of leisure, travel, hobbies, grandchildren, and the excitement of decorating their new home in Concord. Together, will assure the good life we all wish for Caroline and B.B.B.

Mrs. Helen Nyhus Smith will have completed more than thirty years teaching services to deaf children when she retires in June, 1969. Born in North Dakota, Mrs. Smith received her education through the B.A. degree in her native state. She then went to Clarke School for the Deaf in Northampton for her special training to teach deaf children. She taught in Iowa, Idaho, and Florida before coming to Berkeley in 1945. During the twenty-four years here, Mrs. Smith has taught first grade almost exclusively. This is the period of the deaf child's educational development when independent language expression can be encouraged, and when habits as well as attitudes in speech and speech-reading are critical. Those who have observed Mrs. Smith in her teaching role can understand why her children followed a developmental pattern that qualified many for a college education. It is likely that if asked what they remember best about their teacher, many of Mrs. Smith's former students would say: "She demonstrated warm affection always, even when she refused to accept less than our best." In contemplating retirement, our Helen Smith indicates she will be occupied with two basic things; (1) trying to resist the impulse to collect pictures and objects to use in her teaching; and (2) a trip around the world by ship with a stopover in Kenya, South Africa, and hopefully another safari. Her many friends wish her success and happiness.

Mrs. Julia Palmer Trenham will have served the deaf for 47 years when she retires this year. A daughter of deaf parents, she is a native of Knoxville, Tennessee, and received her B.A. from the University of Tennessee. She then received her Masters degree and training to teach the deaf at Gallaudet College. After teaching several years in the Minnesota School for the Deaf, Mrs. Trenham held the position as Pastor's Assistant in the First Methodist Church in Memphis. Before long, however, the lure of teaching deaf children became too strong and she came to our school in Berkeley where she has taught with high devotion and success for nearly 33 years. Besides her outstanding success as a classroom teacher, Mrs. Trenham's most noteworthy contribution has been the organizing and zealous nurturing of the school's interdenominational Sunday School program which served thousands of our deaf children over a period of twenty-eight years. Weekly lessons in religious education stressed character training, the art of being good citizens, and the will to share with others. The latter was attested to by records indicating her students' free will offerings amounting to more than $1000.00 which were distributed to needy and deserving deaf families. The many hours expended by Mrs. Trenham in her dedicated crusade to develop her students into fine citizens have been well repaid by the gratification she has experienced in seeing her many former students who have made their mark in life as teachers, professionals, and most importantly, as gracious citizens. In each life which she has influenced can be noted a reflection of her motto: "Be a friend as well as a teacher." Her friends wish her happiness.

The school lost a great teacher and the students, a good and faithful friend, when Mrs. Catherine Marshall Ramger retired from our staff. Ever since her family moved to California from Minnesota when she was thirteen, "Cato," as she is affectionately known by her friends, has been connected with the school — first as a student, as a Gallaudet College student and finally on our staff as a teacher when she graduated from college in 1939. Not content with her undergraduate studies, she continued with further studies to improve her effectiveness as a teacher. These studies culminated in a Master of Arts degree from San Francisco State College in 1957. To meet her thesis requirement, she collaborated with Mrs. Caroline Burnes in writing a comprehensive and interesting history of the school since its founding in 1860. This has been a outstanding contribution to the history of the education of the deaf not only in California but also in the whole nation.

Mrs. Ramger has a great love for good literature, and in her teaching she continually strove to instill in her pupils an appreciation for good language and a love for first-class books. For some years she sponsored a reading club to motivate children to read for their own pleasure.

She has been a beloved and dedicated teacher for nearly thirty years, teaching elementary, junior high, and high school classes.

Dear Seniors:

The graduation exercises on June 1 will be a milestone in your lives. You will be leaving C.S.D., Berkeley, and moving on to new experiences.

We hope that your years with us have been good ones. We hope that you have taken every opportunity which has been offered you to improve your academic skills, to broaden your knowledge, and to learn a vocation.

You are leaving us during critical and exciting times in our world's history. Yours will be the responsibility of helping to solve our problems as well as enjoying the wonderfuul things which men and women before you have made possible through their work.

Your life may include a trip to the moon or a small part in bringing peace and happiness to mankind — perhaps even both.

Best wishes to each of you.

Sincerely,
Hugo F. Schunhoff
Superintendent

the Class of 1969:

ll am sure that the members of the 1969 graduating ass feel the usual glow of accomplishment and the citement of completing their high school days. Hopelly, along with the pleasure of the occasion, there will a new and deeper acceptance of a feeling of responsility that should come with maturity and the comncement of adult programs of activities. For some, s will be a program of higher education; for some, it ll be full time employment; and for some, the imporit business of being a good husband, or wife; and a d parent. Whatever your future role and responlity, we wish you a full and happy life.
